Main Motions

Missile Madness:

The weekend before the event we are getting together at Juliana's church to do as much cooking as possible. Sunday April 13th from noon to 4pm. That weekend will also be stuff like dismantling the tower and moving things to the site. Watch for more calls for help from Juliana. If you are interested in helping in the kitchen day of, please reach out to Theo.

SCORES is just now getting approved by kingdom. Sign up for lunch so there is enough food of the preferred types. Talk up the event! Tell people they should come.

Questions: Will there be children's events? No specific children's events, but target archery welcomes all ages.

-Baronesses: Send in award recommendations! Sooner rather than later, please! The Archery champion for the barony will be chosen at Missile Madness

-Knight's Marshall: Everything is safe! Anyone who is not a member needs to sign the waiver.

-Exchequer: We have a bank account again! We have no access to it, but will be collecting signatures from the financial committee tonight to get access. Don't know exactly how much there is, it should be the same

-A&S: Need to get in touch with a couple of people about judging at Missile Madness with updates to judging

-Hagar: All of the pieces in place for a Baronial Heralds and Scribes Workshop on September 27th. If you have classes or activities that you would like to see or teach, please reach out. Juliana is running the scribal track.
